

GOT SKILLS?

GET INVOLVED!

HERE'S HOW

Contact a CCP organizer listed here, or fill out the simple form above.

WHICH	WHAT	WHO	HOW OFTEN	CONTACT
Chesapeake Bay Program (CBP) Protected Lands Workgroup	Help plan and implement collective actions to achieve the 2025 Outcome – to protect 2M acres in the Bay watershed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any CCP partner or interested party is welcome to join. 	Monthly workgroup meetings; potential small team efforts to advance one or more of the planned actions.	Aurelia Gracia aurelia_gracia@nps.gov Daniel Koval kovald@chesapeake.org
Protected Lands GIS Team (community of practice)	Contribute to efforts to streamline data collection across the watershed to accurately track acres protected.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any CCP partner or interested party is welcome to join. 	Began in January 2024. Started with monthly meetings, may shift to less frequent in coming months.	Aurelia Gracia aurelia_gracia@nps.gov Daniel Koval kovald@chesapeake.org Sophie Waterman swaterman@chesapeakebay.net John Wolf jwolf@usgs.gov
Chesapeake WILD Roundtable	Network of partners working together to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> strengthen coordination across agencies, orgs and partnerships to achieve our shared vision for restored, connected, and healthy lands and waters across the watershed; amplify the collective impact of conservation practitioners in the watershed. 	Non-government conservation organizations/practitioners, other partner networks and roundtables, and gov't conservation agencies – local, state, interstate, tribal, and federal.	Biannual meetings were held in 2024 and schedule will adjust for 2025. Opportunity to participate in emerging teams and ad hoc groups.	Faren Wolter faren_wolter@fws.gov Chase Douglas cdouglas@chesapeakeconservation.org
Ad hoc contributor	When important topics arise, join a discussion to provide input, help steer or guide. Example: Considerations for land conservation in the future of Ches. Bay partnership work “Beyond 2025.”	Various subject matter experts, practitioners, leaders/ champions	Very occasionally as needed, can be a single gathering to discuss a topic or a few meetings to find suggested solutions.	Ben Alexandro balexandro@chesapeakeconservation.org Chase Douglas cdouglas@chesapeakeconservation.org

Wait, there's more! →

WHICH	WHAT	WHO	HOW OFTEN	CONTACT
Success Stories	Send us your success stories to highlight on CCP's website at https://success.chesapeakeconservation.org .	Partners with a project to share	Whenever you have one! 	Kaelyn Kobosko staffassistant@chesapeakeconservation.org ← Or fill out this form: tinyurl.com/CCPstories
Chesapeake Conservation Atlas	CCP along with NPS Chesapeake Bay Office, NatureServe, Chesapeake watershed states, and USGS to develop this tool to help partners prioritize their conservation efforts and plans.	Any CCP Partner is welcome to use this resource!	Use this QR code to access the Data Viewer for the atlas on the CCP Website. 	Chase Douglas cdouglas@chesapeakeconservation.org Ben Alexandro balexandro@chesapeakeconservation.org
Federal Funding Navigator	A technical assistance service supported by the Environmental Policy Innovation Center (EPIC) to help navigate available funding. EPIC provides analysis of best opportunities to capture land conservation funds and act as an early alert system of advanced notice of RFPs and details.	Partners can provide input and feedback on the interface and information provided in the new navigator, share federal funding experience to date, and provide insight into other programs to consider adding.	You can use the Link below to access the tool using the password: FFN! You can provide input by emailing the points of contact. 	Ben Alexandro balexandro@chesapeakeconservation.org Chase Douglas cdouglas@chesapeakeconservation.org
Share Your Skills	What special skill(s) do you have to share?	Tell us what your superpower is!	Depends on the skill or task at hand.	Ben Alexandro balexandro@chesapeakeconservation.org Chase Douglas cdouglas@chesapeakeconservation.org
Provide your Input	CCP wants to know how it can best support the partners, and your input will help propel that work.	Any CCP Partner  	Provide input now. You can take the surveys below or contact us directly. ← GIS Survey: tinyurl.com/CCP-GISSurvey ← Funding Needs: tinyurl.com/CCP-funding	Louis Keddell lkeddell@chesapeakeconservancy.org Chase Douglas cdouglas@chesapeakeconservation.org Ben Alexandro balexandro@chesapeakeconservation.org

How to Participate: Contact a CCP organizer listed here, or fill out the simple form below. ↓

